METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS-By Henry Ware, Optician, August 1:

STATISTICS OF THE PROBATE COURT .- In the Hamilton County Probate Court, during the month of July, 82 Naturalization papers were granted; 26 inquests of Lunacy held; 14 per-sons were sent to the Asylum and 156 marriage licenses issued.

OBTAINING MONEY BY FALSE PRETENSES.—
We stated vestorday that a man named Geo.
F. Allen had been arrested and lodged in the Station-house, upon a charge of selling paste juels for genuine diamonds. He was arraigned before Judge Lowe yesterday morning, but as no affidavit had been filed against him, he was discharged.

Personal.—If R. H. Gaston, who lost a watch a few days ago, will attend the Police Court this morning, he may regain his property by identifying it. Officer Smith recovered it, and arrested a man on suspicion of having stolen it, and the trial will take place today, before Judge Lowe.

CINCINNATI SPRAKERS IN ILLINOIS,-Free Hassaurek, of this city, is bearding the lion in his den, it would seem, for he is stumping Illinois for Lincoln and Hamlin. On Satarday evening he addressed an immense crowd in Springfield, at the State House, and entertained it, according to the Journal, n excellent style.

THE RECENT STABBING APPRAY IN CORK-ALLEY.—Wm. O'Brien and Henry Collins were arrested day before yesterday, charged with being concerned in the malicious cutting of Thomas Rooney, which occurred a few nights since in Cork-alley, between Cul-vert and Hubbard-streets. They were com-mitted in default of $1,000 bail each, for ex-amination before the Police Court next Sat. amination before the Police Court next Sat urday.

THE FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING .- The alarm The First Yesterday Monsing.—The alarm of fire about two o'clock yesterday morning was caused by the partial burning of the upper story of Wm. H. Harrison's building on Fourth-street, between Vine and Wulnut, the lower portion of which is occupied by John Church, music dealer. The room where the fire originated is occupied by Samuel Wilson, cloak and mantilla dealer, while the damage, chiefly from water, was trifling, and fully covered by insurance.

Man Severely Injuried by a Fall.—A laborer, named Michael McCaffrey, while at work upon a new house, on Race-street, near Thirteenth, fell from the second story into the cellar, and fractured his skullquite badly. Several of his ribs were also broken, and he received such internal injuries as will probably result in death. He was immediately removed to his residence, in Dublin-street, where his wounds were carefully attended to although little hope is entertained of his ultialthough little hope is entertained of his ulti-mate recovery.

A FEMALE POISONED BY A BED-BUG MIX-TURE.—The captain of a boat on the Miami Canal, night before last, purchased about a quart of a bed-bug exterminator, which was composed of corrosive sublimate and brandy. The cook, a female, was quite fond of brandy although she had no penchant for Hydrargo chlorid, as the sequel will show: One of the boatmen told her it was excellent liquor, and boatmen told her it was excellent liquor, and she believed him, drank, and would have died, but for the fact that Dr. H. D. Garrison, who was called upon immediately, succeeded in neutralizing and dislodging the poison by the proper use of antidotes. As corrosive sublimate is both colorless and tasteless, persons who sell it for a vermine exterminator, would probably do well to mix it with oil of turpentine, creosote or some thing which would not detract from its merit, but would effectually prevent its use as a beverage. effectually prevent its use as a beverage.

The Street Railboad Accident.— The city papers which, as is the nature of newspapers, always go like a flock of sheep, are improving the occasion of the recent accident on a street-railroad to expound on the danger of getting on or off cars while in motion, and on the negligence of conductors in not bringing the cars to an entire stop when passengers get on or off. What nonsense! The writers themselves will continue to get on and off the cars when in motion; so will the majority of male passengers; the conductors conform to the wishes of the passengers, and the passengers will do so in spite of them. The rear platform is the one designed for entering and leaving the cars, and the one used in most cases. How, without suspending the laws of gravitation, can a passenger, who gets on or off the rear platform while the cars are in motion; contrive to get under the wheels, either accidentally or purposely? Let the writers try it, and they will find that though the laws of common sense are easily suspended in their cases, the laws of gravitation will prevail.

It seems that in getting off the forward platform while the car is in motion a person can be thrown so that his legs will come under the wheels. Then the forward platform had better be avoided. It is explained how this was done. The man jumped off, holding on to the rod behind, instead of the one forward, so that the jerk upon his hand whirled him around and he tell with his legs forward of the wheels. The case should be a warning against entering or leaving by the forward platform while the cars are in motion; that all. There is no necessity for censuring any body, nor for putting any slow motions on the conductors or cars.

Mr. Weasner offered a resolution authorizing the Auditor to sell a lot of land owned by the city, and located on Eleventh-street, Covington, on the best terms which may be offered. Adopted.

Mr. Mack, from the Committee on Sewerage, introduced an ordinance relating the manner in which private persons may tap the public sewers for drainage. Laid on the table, ordered to be printed, and made the special order for Wednerday night week.

The same gentleman submitted a report in favor of constructing a sewer on Broadway, and accompanied it by the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of City Improvements be, and they are hereby, authorized to advertise for proposals, and contract for building sewers on Broadway and Main-streets, from Pearl-street to the Ohlo River, in accordance with plans which may be approved by the Committee on Sewers and Drainage and the City Civil Engineer.

Mr. Mack said that it was comemplated to petition to the Legislature, at its next session, for authority to levy a tax sefficient to establish a general system of sewerage; but the two streets named needed draining so badly that delay would be dangerous. Laid over.

Two reports, one from the majority and one from the minority of the Committee on Common Schools, were submitted, in ref-erence to the purchase of ground at the head of Kilgour-street for the purpose of opening a more eligible highway to the Elm-street School-house—the former recommending the purchase and the latter opposing it.
